NEXT-GEN SUPPLY GROUP, INC. TO ACQUIRE SIMPLEX JANITORIAL SUPPLY

Mansfield, MA & Sharon, MA— April 23, 2021 — Today, Next-Gen Supply Group, Inc. (“Next-Gen”) announced that it has reached a definitive agreement to acquire Simplex Janitorial Supply (“Simplex”) for an undisclosed sum. Simplex remains a market leader that consistently serves a diverse and loyal customer base, including prominent corporate, educational, medical, and municipal clients across the Northeast. Co-Founded by brothers Alan and Peter Brown in 1976, Simplex delivers critical supplies to ensure organizations maintain the highest levels of operational sanitation. This has been especially true during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Alan Brown, CEO of Simplex, added: “Simplex couldn’t be more excited to have one of the country’s most innovative and progressive janitorial supply companies in our corner. We have long admired Next-Gen’s market leader position and commitment to its customer base. It is a privilege to become part of their extended family.”

Larry Stern, President of Next-Gen, added: “Simplex’s methodical approach, relationships, and purpose driven mission to serve its customer base positions it well. We look forward to increasing our geographic footprint in Massachusetts and beyond, enhancing operational resources and expertise to develop new opportunities, and supporting Simplex’s existing relationships.” Simplex’s current customers will continue to see the high level of service they are used to while in addition, they will have access to the increased product and service portfolio Next-Gen has to offer.

About Next-Gen

Next-Gen, one of the Northeast's largest independent family-owned distributor of value added janitorial and maintenance supplies was formed in 2019 as a merger between M.D. Stetson and Supreme Industrial Products. Its goal is to offer the most value-added solutions and service available to the New England janitorial supply market.
